

Madison Library Summer Reading Program 2012

Order Your Own Copy - or - Reserve a Library Copy of The Brothers Plad book

Once there were two brothers. They loved life and they loved adventures. They needed rugged shirts for their adventures. They chose flannel plad.

So begins The Brothers Plad and The Mystery Trout....a story about stories. It tells the quest of Tommy and Paulie, two Vermont brothers, who take up the family tradition of catching stories. Their quest for a story takes them into the Green Mountains, in search of their great grandfather's legendary fishing hole, Angel Falls. It is a tale of daring, danger, and determination.

See more about the book at www.thebrothersplad.com.

As part of this year's Summer Reading Program, the Madison Library will welcome the Brothers Plad from Vermont to Madison on July 25. At 1 pm on that day, authors of "The Brothers Plad: The Mystery Trout," Watermelon Tourmaline and Hignus Harkaway (a.k.a. Sean and Matt Plasse) will host an action-packed Plad party adventure.

So that everyone who wants to has a chance to read the book before the Brothers' Plad visit, we'd like to know how many copies of the book we will need. If you order your own copy, the authors will be happy to sign it for you on July 25.

Please help us by bringing this form to the library, or by emailing or phoning in your request, by Tuesday, June 4, 2012. Madison Library: 367-8545 or librarian@madison.lib.nh.us.
