24 LIBRARY DIRECTOR'S REPORT: Library Director Sloane Jarell:

- 26 • The statistics look good. We've been really busy during what is usually a quiet time of 27 year, perhaps partly due to the unusually good weather for this time of year. Christina
28 McAllister noted that the total circulation for January and February was the highest ever.
29 Sloane said the pandemic really bumped up the downloadables. Patti Rau said that all
30 the activities and programs taking place in the Chick Room affect the circulation as well.
- 31 • We added a radon test kit from the Green Mountain Conservation Group which has been 32 very popular with the public.
- 33 • The first Cookbook Club was successful; we will make that a quarterly event.
- 34 • The Madison Town Column is back in the Conway Sun every two weeks which we can 35 use to promote library activities.
- 36 • We'll be offering eclipse glasses starting on April 1 for the eclipse to take place on April 8.
- 37 • Sloane attended the Joint Loss Management Committee meeting and asked if our front 38 door is in compliance. This will be looked into.
- 39 • Sloane will attend a dementia workshop at the Gibson Center which is provided for 40 people who work in the community.
- 41 • A new dehumidifier will be ordered for the library.
